will visit the 1337Camp and spend the night there.

Notes:

Young people traveling alone between the ages of 16 and under 18 are welcome. Children under the age of 16 are generally not allowed to visit the 1337Camp alone, but only in the company of an adult. For teenagers traveling alone, the 1337Camp does not assume the responsibility for supervision of the minor and the child's legal guardian(s) are liable for any damages that may occur.

I/We acknowledge that caffeinated beverages such as coffee, energy drinks, etc. are accessible at 1337Camp.

I/We have also discussed with my/our daughter/son that as a minor, she/he should stay away from the smoking area.

We/I have instructed my/our daughter/son to use the kitchen equipment at 1337Camp as it is intended.

Furthermore, I am/we are convinced that my/our daughter/son is aware of the restrictions of the Youth Protection Act and will behave accordingly.

I/we acknowledge the generally applicable house rules (INSERT LINK) for the adequate use of the 1337Camp and have discussed them with my/our daughter / son. My/our daughter/son will abide by the house rules.

Please note that 1337Camp does not provide special care for teenagers.

Should it become necessary, I/we can be reached during my/our daughter's / son's stay as follows:
